“I have used the electric vehicles to get to doctor's appointments, to buy our groceries for the week, and to drop-off and pick-up my children from school. My wife and I also have a part-time job a couple of hours a day, three times a week and we have used the car to get to work since we can reserve the electric vehicles for three hours. Even though our job site isn't far from home, the money we save accumulates over time.”
